The purpose of the meeting is to share the latest information on the Corps Grand Lake, Oklahoma, Real Estate Adequacy Study. The meeting is informal and no formal presentations will be made. Interested parties are invited to participate and visit information tables. Representatives from the Corps Tulsa District office will be available to answer questions and listen to comments. The Corps is also evaluating ways to involve the public in identifying future steps to be taken in response to the study findings. The public is invited to express their views on what these steps might be. If you have any questions about this workshop or the Corps study, please contact the Corps at the address shown below.
